TERMS AND CONDITIONS

GUARANTEE TERMS

ROYAL LEGACIES PRIVATE LIMITED Guarantees the project will be free from defects in material and workmanship for a Guaranteed period of 2 years starting from the date of completion.

- That means: for two years after the job is finished, we accept responsibility for faults that are the result of poor materials supplied by ROYAL LEGACIES PRIVATE LIMITED or mistakes made during installation.

COVERAGE

- This Guarantee covers:
 - Defects in workmanship — faults that result from the way the ROYAL LEGACIES PRIVATE LIMITED or its crew performed the work (for example, installation errors).
 - Water leakage — any water ingress that is caused by defects in the work or materials will be covered and stated in the agreement .

EXCLUSIONS

- The Guarantee does not cover problems caused by:
 - Natural disaster — any damage resulting from events such as storms, floods, earthquakes, or other force majeure/natural catastrophes.
 - Normal wear and tears — deterioration that happens over time through ordinary use and ageing.

- Maintenance related issues — problems that arise because of lack of routine maintenance, improper maintenance, or failure to follow maintenance guidance.
 - Third party damages — damage caused by people or organisations other than the ROYAL LEGACIES PRIVATE LIMITED Crew (for example, other contractors, vandalism, or accidental damage by the owner's agents).

GUARANTEE CLAIM — how a client makes a claim

- To make a claim under this Guarantee the Client must:
 - Send proof of service along with proof of defect to our Customer After Sales Service lines.
 - “Proof of service” means evidence that the original work was performed under this contract (for example the contract itself, job completion confirmation, or receipts).
 - “Proof of defect” means documentation showing the fault exists (for example photos, written descriptions, or other supporting material).
 - The Client must direct that material to the ROYAL LEGACIES PRIVATE LIMITED so that we can come and review the issue to confirm whether it falls under the Guarantee.

REMEDY — what the We will do if the claim is accepted

- Repair of defective work.
 - If the defect is accepted as covered by the Guarantee (i.e., it is a defect in workmanship or water leakage within the 2-year period and not excluded), the Contractor will carry out repairs necessary to correct the defective work.

How the whole guarantee process flows

1. Completion date established — the date of completion starts the 2-year guarantee clock.
2. Client discovers a defect (workmanship fault or water leakage).
3. Client sends claim material — the Client sends proof of service plus proof of defect to the General Contractor.
4. Contractor reviews claim — Will send our crew to evaluates whether the claim is within coverage and not excluded.
5. If covered — Our crew will performs the repair of the defective work as the remedy.
6. If excluded — the Contractor does not repair under this Guarantee (the exclusions apply).
7. If non-payment or failure to perform occurs — either party may terminate the Contract under the stated grounds,(this does not apply to the Hustle Free S&F).

Key practical points (clarifying intent, not adding terms)

- The Guarantee is limited in scope: only defects in workmanship and water leakage are covered, and it will be repaired.
- The 2-year period is counted from the date of completion.
- Exclusions remove responsibility for damage from natural disasters, normal wear and tear, maintenance issues, and third-party actions..
- Termination is allowed only for non-payment or failure to perform to the contract specifications.
